Template for Submission of Abstracts

This template is to be used to prepare your abstract for submission to the International symposium on sustainable fruit production. Use of this template is a benefit to the author in that the entire abstract  may be submitted in one file.

Using the template

1) If typing your manuscript directly into the template, select (highlight) the text of the template that you want to replace and begin typing your manuscript (i.e., select the Title section for typing in your title).
2) Style is "Normal" with double spacing.
3) Delete all sections from the template that are not needed, including these instructions.
4) Save the file in place: select Save As (File menu) and save it as a word document file.
5) Proof a printout of the abstract (from a 600 dpi or higher laser printer) to ensure that all parts of the document are present and clearly legible.
6) See the following  page for the abstract template.

Abstracts due January 11th!

The title should accurately, clearly, and concisely reflect the emphasis and content of the paper. The title must be brief and grammatically correct.

*Author Names: Include in the byline all those who have made substantial contributions to the work, even if the paper was actually written by only one person. Use first names, initials, and surnames (e.g., John R. Smith). Do not include professional or official titles or academic degrees. One author should be designated with an asterisk (*) as the presenting author.*

Author Address: The affiliation should be the institution where the work was conducted.

Abstract: The abstract should briefly state the problem or purpose of the research, indicate the theoretical or experimental plan used, summarize the principal findings, and point out major conclusions. Abstracts are limited to a single paragraph containing a maximum of 1500 characters, including spaces.

Key words: 3 to 5 keywords describing the subject of the abstract and not included in the title
